

Elena Flores is a performing artist and songwriter mesmerizing audiences with her enchanting vocals and onstage persona. Earning a Bachelor of Music from Shenandoah University and Master of Music from UNC-Greensboro in Vocal Performance, Elena seamlessly blends her classical roots with her passion for mainstream music. Her diverse repertoire ranges from Classic Oldies and Pop to Broadway, Jazz, and Opera. Recent highlights include performing with the Vienna Light Orchestra on their 2025 national Christmas tour, serving as the featured artist for the North Charleston POPS! 13th and 14th season opening concerts, and appearing as a featured vocalist in the Florence Symphony Orchestra's 2025 FSO Rocks concert.

In addition to her live performances, Elena is a recording artist. Her original music highlights her unique style, dynamic range, and emotional delivery. A true crossover artist, she is committed to delivering compelling musical experiences that resonate with every performance.